Summary:

Many of us involve in our spare time the operations of mission-focus organizations/associations of a nonprofit nature, while others are full-time entrepreneurs within the nonprofit sector. How best establish or assist nonprofit organizations for their sustainable growth, while effectively provide job opportunities to needed talents to boost economy and maintain competitiveness? What are the advantages and limitations for that sector?

This presentation will explain the process of forming nonprofit organizations and obtaining 501(c) tax-exempt status from the IRS, including follow up compliance requirements to maintain the tax-exempt status. In addition, the presentation will introduce recent trends on legal issues involving nonprofit organizations, such as social media, intellectual property, and event contracts.
